Brigadier General A. J. Goodpaster
Staff Secretary
The White House
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Andy:

I am attaching hereto a copy of a letter which I wrote to Governor Adams on 5 April 1957 concerning the promulgation of a policy statement that would implement certain personnel recommendations of the Hoover Commission having to do with the relationship between "noncareer political executives" and "career administrators." Since I have not received a reply to this letter, I have withheld action.

If you could give me some guidance on this I would appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT:

Andy Goodpaster called to say that this matter of "non-career political executives" and "career administrators" had been under study by the White House personnel specialists along with the same problem as it applies to other government agencies.

Andy said that they have concluded that due to the nature of CIA and its responsibilities that your position is correct and they plan to take "no further action" with respect to CIA. Hence, issuance of your proposed policy statement seems to be the correct procedure.
